

Local Law 5 of 2020

A Local Law amending Chapter 140 of the Code of the Town of Rochester

Section 1. Amendment

There shall be added to Chapter 140 of the Code of the Town of Rochester a new §140-26A entitled “Short-Term Transient Rentals” to read as follows:

§140-26A Short-Term Transient Rentals

- A. Purpose. With the increase in tourism over the past several years in the Town of Rochester and adjacent areas, there has been an increase in the number of property owners renting to tourists on a short-term transient basis.
The following local law imposes mandatory regulations and requirements on all Town of Rochester property owners that desire to rent on a short-term transient basis their property. The purpose of such regulations and requirements are to assure that the properties being rented meet certain minimum safety and regulatory requirements thereby protecting both the property owners, occupants of such housing and the residents of the Town of Rochester.
- B. Authorization. The Town Board authorizes the Code Enforcement Officer to issue permits to property owners to operate short-term transient rental units per the provisions of this local law. Applications for a permit to operate a short-term transient rental unit shall be processed under the procedures set forth in this local law.
- C. Zoning. Short Term Transient Rental Units shall be considered accessory uses allowable upon receipt of a short-term transient rental permit in all zoning districts except the I and NR districts.
- D. Definitions. As specifically apply to this subsection

House Rules - A set of rules that applies to renters of short-term transient rental units while occupying the unit.

Local Manager - The person specifically named on the application and permit that is responsible for the day to day operation of the short-term transient rental unit, and who may be contacted, day or night, if there is a problem at the Unit. The local manager may be either the owner or an agent of the owner. The local manager must reside or have within thirty (30) miles of the Town of Rochester Town Hall.

Non-resident owners - A property owner that does not use the property as their primary residence

Short-term Transient Rental Unit - The rental or lease of any dwelling unit, for a period of thirty (30) days or less, to one entity whether by an owner or a long-term lessee of the short-term transient rental unit. Motels, hotels, resorts, inns, and bed & breakfasts are excluded from this definition.

Sleeping Room - An interior room other than a bedroom, as defined under the NYS Uniform Fire Prevention and Building Code, that may serve to afford sleep to a person, however, sleep shall not be the primary function of the room. Examples include, but are not limited to, a living room, family room, den or great room which may be furnished with a futon, convertible couch, or other sleeping surface.

- E. Applicable Law. All property owners desiring to rent on a short-term transient basis must comply with the regulations of this local law. However, nothing in this local law shall alter, effect, or supersede any regulations or requirements of the Town of Rochester Zoning Ordinance, any regulations or requirements imposed by the County of Ulster, or any State or Federal regulations or requirements, and all property owners must continue to comply with such regulations or requirements. All Short-Term Transient Rental Units shall obtain a valid permit from the Code Enforcement Officer before operation.
- F. Fee. A nonrefundable permit fee shall be established by resolution of the Town Board and may be amended from time to time by the Town Board for each short-term transient rental unit. Such permit fee shall be submitted with each new application and each annual renewal application.
- G. Application Forms. Applications for a permit to operate a short-term transient rental unit shall be available from the Code Enforcement Office. Applicants must file a separate application and tender a separate application fee and obtain a separate permit for each dwelling unit to be used as a short-term transient rental unit.
- H. Application Process.
 - (1) The initial permit application to operate a short-term transient rental unit shall be submitted to the Code Enforcement Officer along with the applicable application fee, prior to operation.
 - (2) Property owners shall register with the County's Commissioner of Finance for a certificate of authority empowering such operator to collect the tax from the occupant pursuant to Section 312-8 of the Code of Ulster County, and provide documentation relating thereto to the Municipality in order to be eligible for any such permit.
 - (3) The initial permit application must include the following:
 - (a) Contact information. The names, addresses, email address(es) and day/night telephone numbers of the property owners and local managers must be included on the application.
 - (b) Hosting Platform information. The applicant shall provide the names and URL's for all hosting platforms or other advertising platforms, such as but not limited to Facebook, Instagram, website, used by the applicant for advertisement of the Short-Term Transient Rental Unit. Any changes or additions to the listed hosting/advertising platform shall be reported on the applicant's renewal permit.

- (c) Parking. The number of off-street parking spaces to be provided shall be stated on the application. Off street parking shall be provided to accommodate the occupancy of the short-term transient rental unit, one parking space for each sleeping room in the dwelling plus other parking as required in the Town of Rochester Zoning Ordinance. Vehicles shall not be parked on front lawns. There shall be no on-street parking allowed. No parking shall be allowed outside of the parking spots designated and detailed on the permit.
- (d) Maximum Occupancy. The maximum desired occupancy by the operator shall be stated on the application. The Code Enforcement Officer shall establish the maximum occupancy. The Code Enforcement Officer shall limit the number of occupants based on the number, size, configuration, and furnishings of the bedrooms and/or sleeping rooms, and per the provisions of state laws.
- (e) Water and septic. The source of the water supply shall be stated on the application and the permit. The septic system shall be functioning, and the type, size, and location of the septic system shall also be stated on the application. New permit applications shall require documentation from the Ulster County Health Department, a licensed engineer, or a New York State licensed home inspector, indicating that the septic system has been inspected and is found to be currently working properly. Proof that the septic system has been pumped within the previous three (3) years shall be provided.
- (f) Description. A floor plan of each bedroom and sleeping room, including the dimensions of said rooms, occupancy of each room and the methods of ingress and egress (examples: doors and windows) shall be included with the application. The applicant shall submit a plat of the property showing approximate property boundaries and existing features, including buildings, structures, well, septic system, parking spaces, firepits, driveways, streets and neighboring buildings within one hundred (100) feet of the short-term transient dwelling unit.
- (g) Garbage Removal. The applicant shall state how garbage is removed from the property. The applicant is responsible for all refuse and garbage removal. The applicant shall be responsible for either (a) contracting with a refuse company or (b) the owner or property manager shall remove garbage on a weekly basis. If there is a dumpster located on the property, the location of the dumpster shall be depicted on the plat submitted with the application.
- (h) House Rules. The applicant shall submit a copy of the house rules (see below Section M for required House Rules).
- (i) Jurisdiction. If a property owner does not reside or have a principal place of business within thirty (30) miles of the Town of Rochester Town Hall, then they must designate the Local Manager, as an agent.
- I. Inspections. Each unit shall be inspected by the Code Enforcement Officer to determine compliance with New York State Uniform Fire Prevention and Building Code. Inspections shall be done for the initial permitting and for each renewal permit. No initial or renewal permit shall be issued without compliance with the elements of the submitted application.
- J. Application Review. Upon receipt of the application and fee, the Code Enforcement Officer shall determine if the applicant has complied with all the requirements of this local law as well as any federal, state, county, or local laws. If the applicant has fully complied, then the Code Enforcement Officer shall issue the property owner a short-term transient rental permit so long as Code

Enforcement Officer inspections have been completed and approved. No permit shall be issued until inspection is completed and the short-term transient rental unit is approved by the Code Enforcement Officer. Notification of the initial permit shall be sent to neighbors within 500 ft of the property by the Code Enforcement Office upon permit approval.

- K. Renewal permits. The applicant will provide the Town of Rochester with any changes to the original underlying application for a Short-Term Transient Rental Unit Permit, together with such additional documentation as determined by the Code Enforcement Officer, all of which will be on forms prescribed by the Code Enforcement Office, along with the current application fee. Any applicant who applies for a short-term transient rental unit permit and did not hold a permit for the immediate prior year, shall be considered an initial applicant and not a renewal applicant. Permit holders shall be able to apply for Renewal Permits beginning October 1st through December 1st.

L. General Permit Regulations.

- (1) Copies of the permit must be displayed in the dwelling unit in a place where it is easily visible to the occupants and in a window where it is easily visible from the exterior of the dwelling.
- (2) The permit to operate a short-term transient rental unit in any given year will expire on December 31, except an initial permit approved after November 1st of a calendar year shall be allowed to run through December 31st of the subsequent year. All renewal permits shall run from January 1st to December 31st of a calendar year.
- (3) Rental permits for operation of a Short-Term Transient Rental Unit may not be assigned, pledged, sold, or otherwise transferred to any other persons, businesses, entities, or properties.
- (4) All short-term rental unit properties shall have posted on or about the inside of the front or main door of each dwelling unit a card listing emergency contact information. Such information shall include, but not be limited to the name, address, email, and phone numbers of the building owner, if local, or of a local manager and instructions on dialing 911 for emergency/fire/ambulance assistance. This information shall also be posted on the outside of the house near the main door or in a window where it is easily visible from the exterior of the building. A local agent shall be able to respond in person within one hour
- (5) No person or persons shall be housed separately and/or apart from the dwelling unit in any tent, trailer, camper, lean-to, recreation vehicle, 'tiny-house', boat, or non- dwelling unit.

M. House Rules

- (1) All short-term rental unit properties shall post for renters of each dwelling unit a listing of House rules. House rules shall incorporate, but not be limited to, the following:
 - (a) An emergency exit plan
 - (b) The location of fire extinguishers
 - (c) Identify the property lines and a statement emphasizing that unit occupants may be liable for illegal trespassing.
 - (d) Identify the procedures for disposal of refuse/garbage.
 - (e) Specify no bonfires during NYS designated "No Burn" periods,
 - (f) If allowed by the property owner, specify outdoor fires shall be made solely within a fireplace

- or fire pit
- (g) Short Term Transient Rentals shall not be permitted to be used for any commercial use or commercial event space.
- (h) No outdoor camping shall be allowed.
- (i) Parking shall be allowed solely in the designated parking spaces.

N. Complaints

- (1) Complaints regarding the operation of a short-term transient rental unit shall be in writing to the Code Enforcement Officer.
- (2) Upon receipt of a complaint of violation, the Code Enforcement Officer shall investigate to determine the presence of a violation, and upon finding to his/her satisfaction that a violation was or is currently occurring, he/she shall issue to the property owner and the local manager a notice detailing the alleged violation(s) as determined by the Code Enforcement Officer. Such notice shall also specify what corrective action is required of the property owner, and the date by which action shall be taken.
- (3) Notices required by this section shall be issued by the Code Enforcement Officer either by personal service to the property owner and/or the local manager or by certified mail to the address of the property owner and/or local manager as shown on the permit application.
- (4) If the landowner does not comply with corrective action by the date given by the Code Enforcement Officer, the Town of Rochester may initiate procedures to revoke the permit, or the Town of Rochester may begin a criminal action against the property owner or pursue any other relief permitted by law.
- (5) The Code Enforcement Officer shall refer to the Town Board any property owners whom they believe to be in violation of this Local Law. The Town Board shall determine whether the permit in question shall be revoked. A revocation of a permit requires a public hearing by the Town Board. The referral to the Town Board may be done in addition to any other penalties permitted by law.
- (6) Complaints can further lead to a denial of a renewal permit until the violation is resolved.

Section 2. Amendment

Chapter 140, Attachment 1, of the Code of the Town of Rochester entitled "Schedule of District Regulations" shall be amended to add in the column labeled Accessory Uses the use "Short-Term Transient Rentals" in the following zoning districts

AR-3, AB-3, R-1, R-2, R-5, H, and B zoning districts

Section 3. Severability

If any part or provision of this local law is judged invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall be confined in application to the part or provision directly on which judgment shall have been rendered and shall not affect or impair the validity of the remainder of this Law or the application thereof to other persons or circumstances. The Town hereby declares that it would have enacted the remainder of this Law even without such part or provision or application.

Section 4. Effective Date

This local law shall become effective immediately upon the filing in the office of the New York Secretary of State pursuant to Section 27 of the Municipal Home Rule Law.
