

FARMER FORUM ON PROPOSED ZONING CODE CHANGES

WHEN

UPDATED! Sunday, December 18, 2022

2:00 pm – Intro & presentation
2:45 – 4 pm – Q&A & Discussion

WHERE (IN PERSON ONLY)

Harold Lipton Community Center
15 Tobacco Road, Accord, NY

WHO

This forum is intended for Town of Rochester farmers and growers of any size or scale, agricultural business owners, agribusiness operators, or anyone with an interest in impacts on agriculture.

DETAILS

Town of Rochester Town Board members Erin Enouen and Michael Coleman are hosting this event to gather farmers together and hear about their experience in the town and provide information on proposed zoning changes especially as they relate to agriculture.

AGENDA

2:00 – 2:45 PM

INTRO & PRESENTATION

FOCUSED ON AGRICULTURAL USES:

- Brief review of the current code and how it works for agricultural uses
- An overview of proposed changes the Town Board is considering including the agricultural use section and other sections that may impact agriculture
- How the process will unfold over the next few months
- How to submit formal comments to the Town Board

2:45 – 4:00 PM

DISCUSSION & Q&A

AS TIME ALLOWS:

- Participant introductions
- Q&A and Discussion on proposed zoning changes
- Brainstorm & Discussion on challenges and ideas not included in the proposed zoning changes

RSVP encouraged but not required:

eenouen@townofrochester.ny.gov

This event is in person only. We do not have the sound equipment needed to host this even both in person and virtually since it is a discussion session.